BUSINESS DISTRICTS

Old Pasadena is nationally recognized for its vibrant main street revitalization. The 22-block area of historic streets and alleyways reflects the traditions of early California, blending more than 130 retail stores, art galleries, trendy boutiques, vintage clothing stores, theaters and restaurants while maintaining the heritage of Pasadena's early downtown charm.

Pasadena Playhouse District is an eclectic mix of art, theatre, literature and retail with numerous restaurants. At its center is the Pasadena Playhouse, the official State Theatre of California and a national historic landmark built in 1917. Experience Southern California's oldest and largest independent bookstore Vroman's or neighboring Canterbury record shop.

South Lake Avenue is a mixture of an active business community and thriving retail center. Many locals frequent this tree-lined avenue featuring retailers like Macy's, Anthropologie and Orvis. Diverse eateries include Madre's, created by Jennifer Lopez, and Pie & Burger, a Pasadena institution since 1963.
